WELCOME TO CUSTODIAN VAULTS

Custodian Vaults is Australia's premier secure storage facility, offering 4 sizes of safety deposit boxes.

Independent of the Australian banking system, we have engaged highly experienced professionals, to assist you with complete discretion and confidentiality.

Custodian Vaults personal safety deposit boxes designed to hold weights of up to 240 kilograms, and are customised to meet the most stringent security requirements.

A host of membership privileges accompany all personal safety deposit boxes, including a unique set of value add-on services for those requiring the purchase, sale and storage of bullion.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

Custodian Vaults offers short-term and long-term leases to suit the requirements of private clients, families, offices, museums and business partners etc. from around the world.

Whether you wish to secure your bullion, important documents, data, precious jewellery or other valuables, you can place trust in our complete confidentiality, maximum security and full insurance coverage backed by extensive experience, and solid financial grounding.

Custodian Vaults. Vault with Confidence.

WHAT CAN YOU STORE IN YOUR VAULT

JEWELLERY

Custodian Vaults counts the region's premier jewellery and gemstone dealers as clients. We pride ourselves on being able to store gemstones, gold, silver, platinum and other precious metals.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS

Items such as deeds, wills, and other legal documents are best stored away from the home or office and in a secure, centralised facility.

DATA

With the ever-growing importance of and reliance on data, secure data storage has never been more important. Common data storage items include hard drives and flash drives in addition to secure data storage for sensitive files.

OTHER VALUABLES

From honorary medals to sentimental photographs and high value items, Custodian Vaults offers short and long-term secure storage solutions to suit the full spectrum of your requirements.

BULLION STORAGE

Each safety deposit box in our facility has been specifically designed to hold standard international bullion sizes and weights.

SECURITY

Custodian Vaults adheres to the highest security industry standards including domestic and international best practice. Custodian Vaults is committed to an unsurpassed level of excellence in customer service.

At Custodian Vaults, security is paramount. Our state of the art facility provides unparalleled surety for your precious commodities.

From 24-hour physical monitoring, bio-metric identification and sophisticated motion detection systems, Custodian Vaults ensures unparalleled security at all times coupled with strict adherence to Australian federal security regulations.

MEMBERSHIP PRIVILEGES

Custodian Vaults provides a complete solution for all precious metals handling requirements including procurement and shipping solutions both domestically and internationally.

BULLION PROCUREMENT

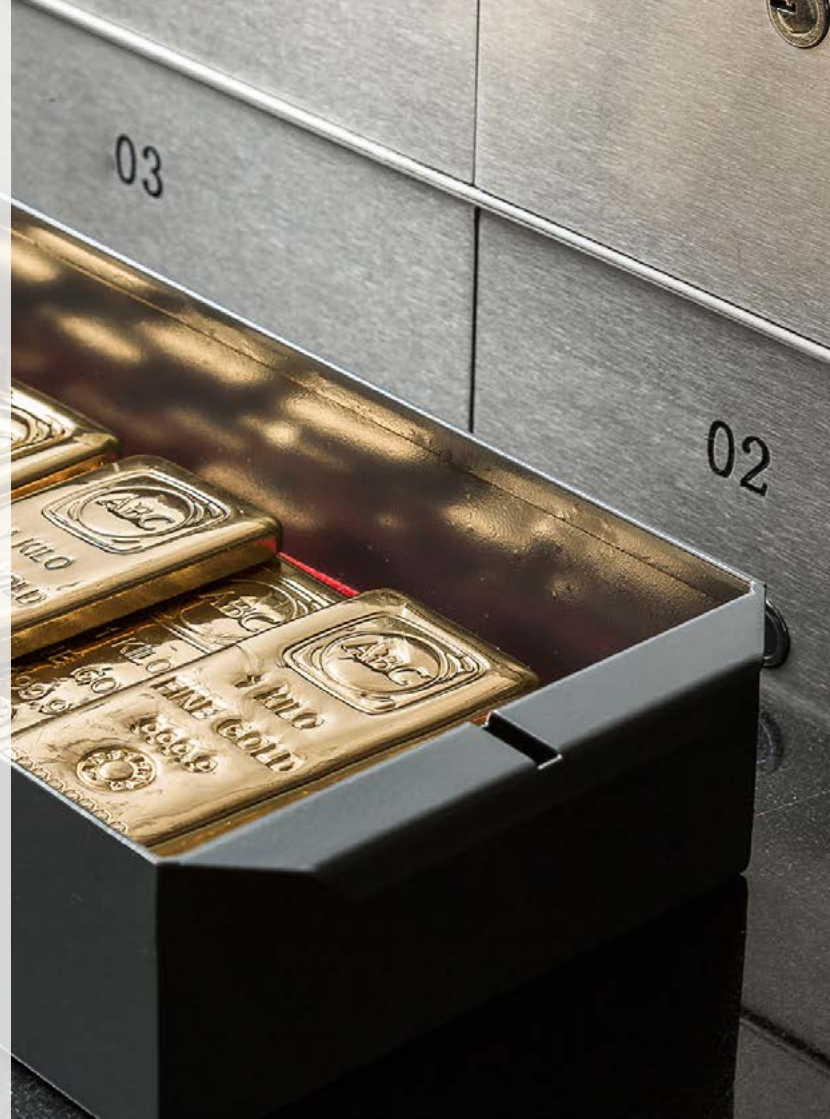

Custodian Vaults provides a complete solution for all precious metals handling requirements including procurement and shipping solutions both domestically and internationally.

INSURANCE

Our insurance brokers insure Custodian Vaults for safe deposit box contents under the comprehensive Custodian Vaults Liability Policy. Under this policy, all Custodian Vaults safety deposit boxes are insured for a minimum of $10,000 at no cost to the customer. Certificates of Insurable Interest are available on request.

LOGISTICS

Custodian Vaults provides secure, convenient door-to-door transportation of your precious commodities. Whether international, interstate or local, our logistics network provides transportation of your contents anywhere in the world including supervision by an independent representative.

PRIVATE VIEWING SUITE

Our private viewing suite has been designed to create a discreet environment to inspect and access your personal safety deposit box. Access times can be booked online at www.custodainvaults.com any time for your convenience. Clients with reservation will be given priority access, but clients may visit the vault anything during working hours, 6 days a week without prior notice.

INVENTORY REVIEW

Custodian Vaults provides independent review of bullion stored in your private safety deposit boxes. Our experts have a detailed knowledge of the precious metals market and our Inventory Review process has been specifically developed to achieve consistency, objectivity and accountability in strict compliance with professional standards and is utilised by accountants and self-managed super funds (SMSF) as part of annual reporting requirements.

Our Inventory Review process involves our Compliance Officer executing an itemised statutory declaration of your bullion inventory, which meets the necessary requirements of your accountant or financial advisor. Additional fees apply for this service.

TOUR OUR FACILITIES

When you come for a tour of Custodian Vaults, our professional staff will escort you through our state-of-the-art facility, explaining each section of the vault to you.

We will provide you with the basics of our procedures and security system, with the entire process taking approximately 20 minutes.

You can view all available box sizes and we will recommend the most suitable size to suit your needs.

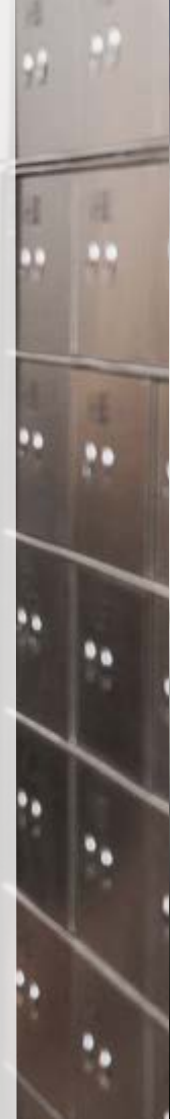

Once you are confident with the information provided, and we have clarified any questions, we will set up your account with Custodian Vaults.

This is a simple process that includes:

- Signing of an agreement
- Setting up your biometrics which includes fingerprints, an individual access code and photo identification recognition

Please note that you can authorise specified persons to have equal access to the box, at no additional charge.

Once your account set up is complete, you will have immediate, unlimited access to your safety deposit box.

DISCRETION & INDEPENDENCE

Custodian Vaults offers complete discretion at every level.

- Exclusive Sydney CBD location
- Secure private access
- Private viewing suite
- Personnel who understand the importance of privacy and confidentiality

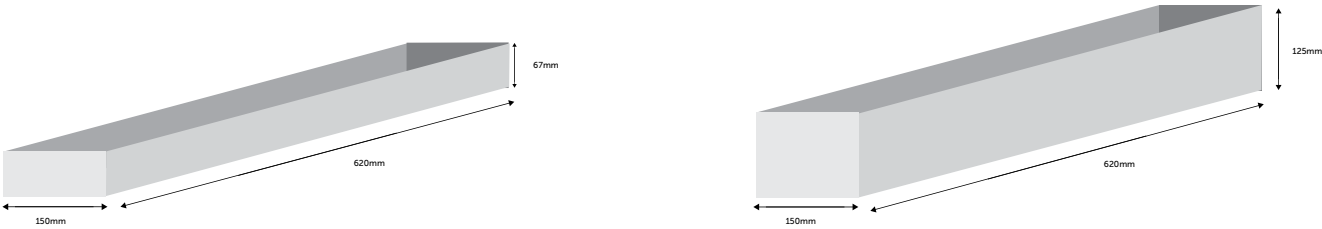

Custodian Vaults is an independent Australian private vaulting facility.

We operate independently of the Australian banking system, ensuring you are able to control and manage your assets with complete freedom and as such, are subject to our comprehensive Privacy Policy (available on our website).
